

Managed Services

The depth and breadth of WideOrbit's media experience is unparalleled in the industry. From making quick system changes, implementing ancillary features, or managing data across multiple WideOrbit products, our team has earned the trust of our clients.

WideOrbit will help evaluate your current state, gain an understanding of your organizational goals and desired outcomes, and design a Managed Services Plan to deliver a solution that works for you.

Our Managed Services Offerings

Configuration Services

Services related to configuring WideOrbit products to ensure performance and function meet your needs.

Database Management

Services related to improving the efficiency and overall performance of databases that support WideOrbit products.

Integration Services

Configuration and maintenance services for integrations between WideOrbit products and between WideOrbit products and third-party software.

Hardware Changes – WO Automation for Radio

Managed Services related to maintaining WideOrbit Automation for Radio products.

Other Technical Services

Technical services that support WideOrbit products.

If you need something not included in this list or within the Managed Services catalog, just ask us!

Contact us to learn more

ManagedServices@WideOrbit.com

Or contact your Customer Success Representative or Sales Account Executive directly.

Why Choose WideOrbit

Customized Managed Services plans and solutions that are scalable as your needs change.

The Managed Services team has enhanced skillsets, invaluable knowledge, and extensive experience delivering solutions for our clients.

The scope of services is pre-defined so the change approval process is faster and overhead is reduced.

Choose a single service from our à la carte menu or work with us to build a custom plan.